

Please keep the no call list as is. Even the few calls that are exempt are an irritation. If I need a business I will look for and contact them. They do not need to come to me unless I ask for their information